DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because they do not include appropriate labels. Please provide a text label for each block (module) in the drawings. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement-drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) The invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 13 and 15-18, rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ciezki et al (“Ciezki”) [US 7,040,125 B2].

As for claim 13, Ciezki discloses an electronic locking system for switch cabinets comprising:

- a. A data bus serving to providing exchanges of information (Figure 11); and
- b. A plurality of modules connected via the data bus (Figure 11), each module having a respective microprocessor (column 5, lines 48-51) for signal processing and a respective closed loop function scope, each module being designed only for the control of an individual function, and the modules processing independently of one another the signals conducted thereto and outputting a decision signal as a processing result (column 6, lines 49-63).

As for claim 15, Ciezki discloses at least one operator module connected to an input keyboard (column 2, lines 59-63).

As for claim 16, Ciezki discloses at least one input module connected to an input unit configured as a transponder device (column 2, lines 48-57 and Figure 13).

As for claims 17 and 18, Ciezki discloses a base module, which acts as a grip module controlled as a function of the locking unit for the door lock (column 2, lines 19-24). The door locks are connected to the grip module.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 14 and 19-24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
